THE OIL & GAS INDUSTRY SPENDS MILLIONS TO INFLUENCE CONGRESS

AND SUSAN COLLINS IS HAPPY TO TAKE THEIR MONEY

Susan Collins has taken more than $500,000 – and counting – from the oil and gas industry.¹

What did the oil and gas industry get in return?

Susan Collins cast the deciding vote to confirm a climate change denier who spent years working for the oil industry to a seat on the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission.

Susan Collins supported judges like Brett Kavanaugh, with long-standing records against protecting our environment, clean air and water.³

Susan Collins even voted for billions of dollars in tax breaks for big oil that resulted in multiple oil companies paying ZERO in federal taxes.⁴
